Disney Emoji Blitz – Positive Comments

Fun!

★★★★★ Fri · AdrianaML

Such a cute, fun game to pass the time! I love collecting the cute emojis and completing challenges. Kid friendly too!

Fun game-keeps my brain busy.

★★★★★ Wed · Bigdoglac

Good game. Earn emoji's and use them to text. Emoji's are well thought out and their powers are sometimes hilarious. Have not bought anything and the game is still fun months later.

Disney fan

★★★★★ Wed · Cynnerm

Fun free game similar to candy crush and it gives you Disney emojis you can use on your phone when texting and posting in social media.

Just can't win!

★★★★★ Sep 12 · gclef6

I've played long enough to remember getting new emojis after completing events. No more! I would have to spend so much money EVERY DAY to even try to advance. I haven't finished an event in two years, because I don't have the recommended emojis to play.

I'm looking for another game to play!

Ads are out of control

★★★★★ Aug 23 · ennyl62

I used to love this app and it was how I de-stressed and relaxed. Ads were always long, repetitive and annoying but I put up with it. Now the ads are still long but they don't give you an "x" to get out of it at the end, you get arrows and "discover" or "go to store". Sent messages but no response and no change. (Ad problems in the past got a "not our fault" type message but would be resolved) There are plenty of matching games, skip this one.

Not the same

★★★★★ Sep 1 · Boptoria

I use to really love the game then it changed. To play certain events, required emojis are needed, and if you don't have them you are forced to stop.

Good but needs to let us earn Star Wars characters

★★★★★ Sun · JediMasterGuy

Good game but please make it easier to earn or get more Star Wars characters more often.

Would love to play on..

★★★★★ Sep 15 · Softballmom132

It would be so cool if the game had unlimited lives. 3 lives at a time is not enough. That would be 5 stars.

Server issues

★★★★★ edited Tue · Fancu Dog's mom

I had to delete this game because it said "unable to connect with server" for over a week. This is the 2nd time I had to do this which makes me very sad. I was really far into the game and enjoyed it. Won't download again.

Disney Emoji Blitz – POV Statements

- Users who want a Disney themed matching game need to be able to play the game efficiently because too many ads can be distracting.
- Users who don't want to pay out of pocket need to still be able to progress through the game in a timely manner because they will not feel accomplished.

Nostalgia

★★★★★ Fri · Gari's Momma

I love this! Mixing my childhood nostalgia with one of my favorite childhood card games! Super fun!

Fun!

★★★★★ Fri · Btust

This is a great way for your kids to learn higher lower with a Disney game

another coin draining game

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ Sat · stefaniesimone

yet another game designed to drain your resources as quickly as possible to push you in the direction of in-app purchases. this game is fun for the few rounds you can flow through, then u go bankrupt and are stuck opening the app every hour to collect more coins to lose in a few seconds. huge time/money waster.

i will keep the app for the points im earning, then delete without ever looking back.

Too hard

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ Mon · enteranickmand

Each level costs so much, most cards are rigged so you spend all your coins trying to pass and have to wait hours to play again or spend a lot of real money. Each part has like 10 smaller parts and the events make you lose all your progress if you lose once

Greed at its finest

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ edited Wed · Nickkk5555

The win rates are less than 20% and there is zero player control.

Even if you buy coins, the game adjusts down your win rate so they barely last an hour.

The game isn't fun bc I just expect that I'm going to lose. Or when I do win a round, I know I'm about to lose 4-5 in a row now.

I've never seen a game designed this aggressively to exploit its players into spending $ daily.

I don't mind supporting games I enjoy, but not with this level of irresponsible greed.

Super fun game, but takes so long to start

★★★★★ Sep 4 · Randoda25

Love playing this game! Its the most entertaining solitaire game I've played in a long time. will admit that it's frustrating that you have to go through 1-2 minutes worth of closing every single pop up or announcement before you can even start playing. I wish the ads and pop ups could be optional to skip through, instead of being forced to go through like 10 different pop ups.

Regenerating coins takes too long

★★★★★ Thu · Cbcrn

Although I love this game, it takes an entire hour to refresh just enough coins to play one level. Another popular game similar to this one in the App Store takes a fraction of that time and gives you more options to earn coins. You also don't earn any credit for anything done in a level if you lose the level. It makes it hard to want to keep playing because everything takes forever.

Fun but definitely built to get you to constantly buy things!

★★★★★ Fri · Toledano99

This game is super fun when you actually get the chance to play. My biggest complaint about this app is how the game function is dependent on getting an hourly "gift" in order to have enough to "pay" for just one deal. It is UNCANNY how the algorithm this app is built on leads to a majority of the deals come down to one last card to try and get you to buy more coins to win and keep your streak going. Some days I could only play about 5-10 deals total.

Disney Solitaire – POV Statements

- Users who want to play along with their favorite characters need a more time efficient way to do that because other games allow for the same gameplay with little to no limitations.
- Users who just want to play the game need to have less pressures to pay real money to progress through the game because it takes away from the experience for those who don't want to pay to play.

I love stitch is a good game for kids because it's easy and fun for kids and adults

New addiction

★★★★★ Aug 11 · Mon5stars

Disney Magic Kingdoms has completely stolen my free time! The game is bursting with charm, colorful graphics, and all my favorite Disney characters. I love building my own park, unlocking attractions, and watching the magic come to life. There's always a new event, challenge, or character to collect, so it never gets boring.

Too many adds

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ Sep 14 · Fitmandy85

I wanted to like this... too many ads. I got frustrated waiting for the ads. I'm done

Waste of time

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ Sep 5 · Mckaemouse

This game makes it nearly impossible to achieve characters or level up without spending real money.

Cannot recommend this version of the game

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ Jul 17 · Cayzzer

I have played this game for 8 years. It used to be fun. Really fun. Now? It's full of glitches that have ruined it. The developers have done nothing to fix the daily gameplay. They keep pushing out new and unwanted features (does anyone really want to collect princess pins when they can't collect the promised daily chests?) but won't fix the issues affecting the day to day play. It's been 3 months for some of the glitches. The developers give us "work arounds" that don't help instead of addressing the problems. Fix. The. Game.

It's something to do...

★★★☆☆ Sep 20 · Bec1217

Game is ok...I wish there was more to keep me playing. I log in twice a day send characters on missions and do the daily stuff. There is nothing else though, no mini games, no interactive missions with characters...nothing to keep me engaged to where I can't wait to play the game.

Disney princesses girl

★★★☆☆ Sep 8 · Kid reviews games

Its good but there not much to do in the game needs more activtes and less reading to do

Fun but extremely slow

★★★☆☆ Sep 10 · eks1602

The first part of the game is so fun and makes it feel like you accomplished a lot in a short time but as soon as you unlock the first land its nearly impossible to level up or buy anything without playing every hour every day or using real money. I wish they would fix at least something to where its a little easier to get potions or leveling up

Disney Magic Kingdoms – POV Statements

- Users who found the game fun and exciting in the beginning need to have more consistency throughout the game because otherwise playing the game becomes too strenuous too fast.
- Users who want more rewards for their efforts need more incentives to do the tasks because otherwise there is no point for them to try to be completed.
